Cor Unum & Bas Kusters – Daisy Jobe

Daisy Jobe

Jobe stands for Joy Bear, and what could be more delightful than a bear with flowers? The optimistic and recognizable visual stimulus of summer flowers truly lifts my spirits, and I hope it does the same for others. Summer happiness, flowers in the grass, what a delight. For me, the teddy bear is a symbol of connection and care. It represents the strong bond we can feel for an object and how we project our hopes and dreams onto it. Bas has experimented with textiles and ceramics, creating a mold for a ceramic teddy bear. The bears are lovingly produced by ceramic manufacturer Cor Unum. Jobe is the result of a research project on joy and the manifestation of joyful feelings. The teddy bear takes center stage as a symbol of generosity.

Cor Unum

Cor Unum is a production house where high-quality ceramics are crafted on behalf of designers and the business world, where young people learn craft techniques, and where innovative designs are encouraged. Cor Unum seeks collaboration with others by creatively reaching out to designers for new products and by establishing a smooth organization where volunteers, professionals, people with employment challenges, students, and designers are molded into a professional collective that secures the ceramic craft for the future.

Cor Unum is recognizable by the logo with the tree of life. The people within the company share a common ideal: everyone deserves a place, everyone has a talent, and everyone can contribute to making the world a more beautiful place.

Bas Kusters

Bas Kusters operates as an artist and designer, always driven by passion and compassion. Through engagement, he creates worlds populated by numerous extravagant, alarming, and tender figures. Assertiveness and enthusiasm are two key terms that apply to all of his various endeavors. With a preference for textiles and paper, he seeks to celebrate and convey societal and personal matters that he deems important. Surrounded by humor and texts, he displays emotions that might otherwise be difficult to accept. A fascination with figures, characters, and erotica sometimes leads to a jarring reality where many perceptions vie for attention. His stories come to life in tapestries, dolls, sets, glass objects, drawings, paintings, and ceramics. Welcome to the world of Bas Kusters.
